JANUARY 16, 2025: MONTHLY MEETING. FOUR SEASON FORAGING

Presenter Maria Wesslerle, owner. Foraging promotes wild harvesting through all the seasons- even winter! Though often thought of as a barren time of year, the persistent forager can find things to harvest: evergreens, fruit still hanging on trees and shrubs, hard-fleshed mushrooms. The benefits of foraging year-round are multifold. Learn about medicinal plants, plants with high nutrients, and where it is safe and legal to forage in the Rochester area. <https://fourseasonforaging.com/>

FEBRUARY

FEBRUARY 11, 2025: 125 LIVE GARDENING FOCUS CLASS - FLOWERS & PLANTS FOR PART SUN & PART SUN/SHADE AREAS 1-2 PM

RG&FC Members are welcome as guests if they register in advance through Karen Noltee at gramaki@charter.net before Feb. 6th!

Are you struggling with part sun or part shade areas in your garden beds? There's a wealth of beautiful and vibrant plants, which thrive in shadier conditions. Join Jean in this insightful presentation, where she'll introduce you to how to brighten your spaces with a wide variety of plants with flowers or add lush, colorful foliage plants. You'll leave with the knowledge to make your garden bold and beautiful this spring!

Presenter: Jean Meyer, Rochester Garden & Flower Club Member, Horticulture degree, Retired Master Gardener, and Shades of Green Hosta Club member. Jean & Jerry Meyer garden near Pine Island on many acres of Shade to Sun.
